We find in the Right Way (Boston) the following appropriate Thanksgiving hymn, written by Edward P. Nowell:

Praise the Lord, O ransomed nation!
Praise the Lord, O ransomed nation!
Praise him all, from sea to sea;
He hath built a firm foundation,
E'on the rock of Liberty!
Putils was nor best endeavor,
Till we turned from wrong to right;
Gloom had shrouded us forwere,
But for Heaven's redeeming might!

Then with peans sing God's praises,
Now, and through all coming time:
Love which manhood's etandard raises,
Merits gratitude sublime!
Hope and Trust, at length victorious
Over trembling Bombt and Year,
Call for rapture, holy, glorious,
Living faith and constant cheer.

Infinite Jehovah, aid us,
While we in thy favor stand,
To remember thou hast made us
A regenerated land;
And while time shall with us linger,
May we love the Just and right,—
Seeing Froedom's guiding finger
Pointing to sternal light!

Triumph of the Revolutionary Party in Peru-Exciting Scenes at Lima, &c [Callao (Nov. 13) Cor. Panama Star and Herald.] Callac (Sov. 13) Cor. Panama Star and Herald.]

The revolution has triumphed in Peru, and President Pezet has fied on board H. B. M. S. Shearwater, in Callac Bay, and will proceed to Panama, co route for Europe, in H. B. M. S. Mutine, just arrived from Valparaiso. This revolution has gone on now for eight months, and last week was terminated with less effusion of blood than was to be expected. On the evening of the 5th inst. a strong division of the revolutionary force was marched on evening of the 5th inst. a strong division of the revolutionary force was marched on the coast near Chorillos, making a circuit overnight of the President's encampment. By a forced march all night, at six next morning they were before the gates of Lima. Little resistance was made till the troops reached the principal plaza, where the palace was held by a troop of Celadores. These men proved really true to President Pezet, and fought to the last till the whole number were shot. The palace was fired and narrowly escaped destruction. The fort "Santa Catalina" still held out with four hundred men, under command of the Minister of War, Colonel command of the Minister of War, Colonel Cuba expecting that Pezet would move to occupy Lima with his force. This genral still held out; but on the follow day, when Pezet marched towards Callao, and when he saw the feeling of the people and the spirit of the victorious army, he capitulated with honors. Immediately ima was held, the new President, Can-eco, sent to demand the surrender of Calso from General Rivas, the Prefect. That night Rivas abandoned his post, geting on board a ship in the bay, and a man amed Real, who had been intrusted with Dress Goods the keepingfof the arsenal and castle, also fled like a coward, leaving no protection whatever to the city. An incited mob which began to demonstrate its joy at the defeat of Pezet, soon turned to more serious works and dividing into bands robbed and plun stood open, empty and completely gutted of every movable piece of property, and what could not be taken away was smashed to pieces. Immediate steps were taken by the citizens and foreign residents for their protection. Early that day, and in the course of the morning, Pezet's army made its appearance outside the town.

Rivas returned to the Prefecture, but only for a short time, for the army, having lost for a short time, for the army, having lost Lima, with nothing to encourage them to hold out longer, with the populace shouting "viva" to their opponents, soon began to show signs of breaking up, and before night it had melted away. Pezet, with some officers, made a rush for Sallao, and concessing himself; till exists to said this oncealing himself till midnight made his scape on board her. Next day the fleet ielded.
